McCabe Picks Up Teamsters Endorsement

Medford, MA, 05 May 2008—Patrick McCabe has been reaching out to local labor union representatives, and it looks like his efforts have been rewarded with a major endorsement. "Teamsters Local 25 has endorsed Patrick McCabe because he is a fresh face in the Medford-Malden district and will not bow to the heavy-handedness of the leadership on Beacon Hill," said Sean M. O'Brien, President and Principal Officer of Teamsters Local 25. "Patrick has his own mind, he is disciplined, and he possesses the right credentials to lead the fight for all working families in his district," O'Brien said.

Patrick McCabe is currently an Organizing and Communications Director for SEIU local 1984, where he spends his entire day encouraging people to stand up for their rights and for the rights of others. "As a union member himself, Patrick McCabe understands what our members require from a State Representative," offered O'Brien. "We recently witnessed some very irresponsible behavior and a missed opportunity by the incumbent Rep. Paul Donato during the Casino Jobs Bill debate," O'Brien continued.

"I hope all Union members in the district consider Patrick McCabe as their next State Representative in Medford and Malden." Said O'Brien, "It is about time organized labor steps up and defeats our enemies and elects our friends, he concluded."

McCabe enthusiastically accepted the endorsement. "I'm honored that an organization with a long history of dedication and service to the American worker considers me worthy of its endorsement," McCabe stated.

Teamsters Local 25 Represents over 475 active and retired members in the 35th Middlesex District. Teamsters Local 25 represents 11,500 members and has been the union of choice for workers in the Greater Boston area since 1900.
